| 06/26/2017 | 156                 | ORDER: This matter arises from 147 the Court's Prior Order Regarding Requests for Trial Procedures and Logistics and 155 the parties' Joint Request for an in camera hearing filed in response. The parties' present filing does not comply with the Court's previous Order, which required that any motions or requests for adjustments to trial procedure and/or logistical matters were to be FILED not later than June 23. Rather than meeting this requirement, the parties have merely requested that the Court alter the procedure it required to allow them the chance to make such requests at a later time and in a different manner. This filing in no way complies with the requirements of the Court's referenced Order. As a consequence the parties are hereby DIRECTED TO FILE any and all requests or proposals no later than 10:00 a.m., tomorrow, June 27, 2017 , whether or not they are finalized or "comprehensive." As previously ordered, the parties are GRANTED LEAVE to make such filing(s) under restriction. The request for an in camera hearing on these matters is TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT, and the Court will rule on it only after receipt of the parties' submission(s) in writing. SO ORDERED by Judge William J. Martinez on 6/26/2017. Text Only Entry (wjmlc2, ) (Entered: 06/26/2017) |

| 06/29/2017 | 161                 | ORDER: This matter is before the Court on the parties' First 155 and Second 157 Joint Statements Regarding Trial Procedures, both in Response to the Court's Prior Order 147 . The parties' request for an in camera hearing to address the procedural matters raised is hereby DENIED. The Court's schedule does not allow for such an additional proceeding and the Court finds the matters raised can be resolved without one. The Court anticipates                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

|            |                     | this courtroom. The intent of this Order is to provide counsel with the opportunity to discuss with jurors what transpired in the jury's presence in the courtroom, and to receive input from them which may assist counsel in improving their trial skills in future cases. Accordingly, counsel's communications with the jurors will be restricted to these topics. This Order is NOT intended to give counsel the opportunity to make inquiry into the jury's deliberations or to examine with them the validity or consistency of their verdict. Accordingly, counsel are prohibited from discussing with jurors: (a) facts or information which were not received into evidence; (b) the content of the jury's deliberations; or (c) the reasons the jury returned the verdict that it did. Any attorney violating any of these restrictions is subject to being held in contempt of Court. SO ORDERED by Judge William J. Martinez on 8/7/2017.
